

MANUFACTURING ENGINEER

THE COMPANY:

Manufacturer of highly engineered and standard capital equipment for the packaged goods industry including beverage, food, medical and cosmetics sectors. Company is well-established, privately held and located near O'Hare.

THE POSITION:

Focus Factory & Machine Shop position responsible for improving manufacturing efficiencies of the machining / fabrication functions including welding. Emphasis is on addressing best methods / processes for manufacturing, machinery to be used, how we should fabricate, etc., and to select best fixtures and tooling for company's processes. Duties include:

- Drive process improvement
- Initiate / implement cost reduction programs relative to process technology
- Leadership role re manufacturing problem solving activities
- Engineering interface to improve manufacturing
- Resolve quality problems in Machine Shop / Fabrication and with outside vendors

QUALIFICATIONS:

Strong fabrication experience with emphasis on CNC equipment including robotic welders and lasers. Previous ERP experience necessary along with AutoCAD, Word & Excel proficiencies. Must be experienced with Lean Principles and aspects of TPS. Minimum of an engineering and/or technical degree with 5 years component manufacturing experience required. Salary is in upper 5 figure range.

CONTACT:

Bill Hensge, The Hensge Company, a retained search & consulting firm.
630-665-5032

E-mail: sgeteam@aol.com or info@hensge.com
www.hensge.com